

HUELL MELON

Huell Melon is a special aroma variety from the Huell breeding programme that was bred and launched on the market as part of the craft beer wave. With good resistance to diseases and all the advantages for sustainable hop growing, Huell Melon is popular with farmers and brewers alike. The variety impresses with its intense, fruity hop flavour. Depending on the type of beer, the quantity used and the timing of the hop addition, Huell Melon impresses with flavours such as honeydew melon, apricot and strawberry.
